Attention Supervisory Personnel, USPTO:

I am requesting your validation of another claim on my utility patent. Enclosed is an application for this request. This application seems to be correct. I was informed by the O.I.P. office via written correspondence that the non-provisionary patent would be ready in December. Please keep me posted. The internet is difficult because I need special privileges which are very costly. Thanks for all your efforts and time. Hope you enjoy your new office in Alexandria.

Sincerely,

Filing Date: 6/22/2001

Application number: #09/886,722

Additional Claim Request

Claim #4 To establish a system of reusing HDPE(high density polyethylene) Detergent bottles without having to refill a bulk container. This system will utilize concentrated detergent packets with tablets that dissolve in water filled plastic bottles. This system which I have developed for the plastic industry may have a profound effect on certain bottle recycling markets. Several applications are currently being investigated for these tablets. Your input is appreciated.
